Local Activities

Fishing

Central Oregon is home to over 100 lakes and more than a dozen nationally renowned streams including the famous fly fishing waters of the Deschutes, Metolius and Crooked Rivers.....

All of the lakes, as well as the Crane Prairie and Wickiup Reservoirs are stocked with rainbow and brown trout.

Shopping

From quaint boutiques to regional malls and a brand name Outlet Center, Central Oregon offers a host of shopping options.

Redmond has a host of shopping options in the downtown area. While you will find ice cream and candy stores, art galleries and clothing shops. Redmond is most known for some of the best antique shopping in the state. You will find over 14 separate antique businesses to browse through to look for treasures or just enjoy a look at the past. The western frontier town of Sisters is famous for their many unique shops. From quilt stores to western stores to unique book and home décor stores you are sure to enjoy a day of shopping for those special gifts you are seeking.

Bend is the heart of Central Oregon and offers a diverse range of shopping options. Downtown offers an abundance of unique shops as well as many restaurants to enjoy. The Old Mill District just south of downtown offers a variety of name brand shopping. Two malls and large factory outlet mall round out your shopping options.

Hiking and Climbing

With the enormous Deschutes and Ochoco National Forests in the backyard, Central Oregon is home to hundreds of miles of varied scenery, terrain and great hiking trails. There are many high lakes to explore or may choose to conquer one of the Cascade peaks which tower over 9,000 feet.
